Remembrance Day at Oakhyrst Grange

A Time to Remember, Reflect and Give Thanks

At Oakhyrst Grange School, Remembrance Day is always a special opportunity for our school community to come together, reflect on the sacrifices made by so many and ensure that the importance of remembrance is passed on to the next generation.

This year, we were privileged to enjoy two wonderful assemblies, filled with fascinating stories, moving musical performances and thoughtful reflections from our pupils.

A Special Guest and Stories to Remember

Our first assembly welcomed a very special guest, Colonel Wilkinson, who gave the children a fascinating insight into his experiences and the significance of Remembrance Day.

The children were absolutely mesmerised by his uniform and the stories he shared.

It was a wonderful opportunity for them to learn beyond the classroom, ask questions and gain a deeper understanding of the courage, commitment and sacrifice of those who have served.

We were also delighted to welcome back one of our former pupils, an Old Oakhyrstian, who performed a very special piece on the trumpet. His beautiful performance created a particularly moving moment and made the occasion even more meaningful for our school community.

An Unforgettable Assembly from Year 5 and Year 6

Our second assembly was led by our fantastic Year 5 and Year 6 pupils, who truly stole the show with an unforgettable presentation.

Through their thoughtful contributions and heartfelt reflections, they demonstrated a wonderful understanding of the importance of Remembrance Day. Their confidence, maturity and respect were a credit to them all, and we could not have been prouder.

It was particularly special to see our older pupils take such ownership of this important occasion, helping the whole school community to pause, reflect and remember.
We Will Remember Them

Days like these are an important reminder that education extends far beyond academic learning. At Oakhyrst Grange, we want our children to grow into thoughtful, compassionate and responsible young people who understand the world around them and appreciate the experiences and sacrifices of others.

We would like to extend our sincere thanks to Colonel Wilkinson, our Old Oakhyrstian trumpet performer and, of course, our wonderful Year 5 and Year 6 pupils for making this year's Remembrance assemblies so memorable.

We will remember them.
